

Two of our elected prosecutors have been profiled in the news lately. First, Jean Peters Baker was interviewed by KCUR on her career and life. The first thirty-nine minutes are the reflections and passions of a career prosecutor honored to serve her community. I strongly encourage you to listen to the interview as you have time. Here is the link to the radio interview:

Second, Dan Patterson was recognized in an article for being our 2019 Prosecutor of the Year. Another career prosecutor who brings honor to our profession. Inside that same article is mentioned one of his assistants- Stephanie Wan. Stephanie was recognized at the recent Missouri Bar meeting as one of the three Lon O. Hocker Award recipients. The link to that article is

Congratulations to all three!
